The Daily Courant.

Saturday, January 23. 1703.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Jan. 25.

THEY write from Milan of the 3d, that Cardinal Archinto, Archbiſhop of Milan, has order'd Publick Prayers to be made, to beg a Bleſſing on the Project of a Suſpenſion of Arms in Italy, which the Pope has ſent to the Emperor for his Approbation. That whether the French flatter themſelves that that Negociation will ſucceed, or imagine they have too many Troops in Italy, there are 8 or 9 Regiments of Horſe actually order'd to return to France with all Speed: And that the King of France has offer'd the Duke of Modena to reinſtate him immediately in the Poſſeſſion of his Dominion and Revenues, provided he will pay 18000 Piſtoles yearly towards maintaining his Majeſty's Troops, which ſhall continue in Garriſon, till the Peace is made, in his Capital City, and other Places of his Dutchy.

Rome, Jan. 6. The Pope on Advice that Monſieur Albergotti advanc'd lately into the Bologneze with a Detachment of 4000 Men, and plunder'd ſome Villages; ſent for Cardinal Fourbin, to let him know that he was highly diſpleas'd at it; and his Holineſs has written a Letter of Complaint about it to the King of France; He has likewiſe ſent Orders to the Cardinal Legate of Ferrara, to keep a ſtrong Guard of Regular Troops and of the Militia on the Banks of the Po, to cover that Province from the Incurſions of the Imperialiſts and French. His Holineſs continues in his Reſolution to go to Loretto a little after Eaſter. The Tiber has overflow'd agen, and done more Damage to this City.

Trent, Jan. 8. We are fortifying divers Poſts on the ſide of the Lake of Garda, to prevent the French from ſucceeding in a New Attempt to break into this Country, of which we are in ſome Apprehenſion; Several Batteries of Cannon are plac'd on the Shore, and a certain number of Regular and Militia Troops are poſted along the ſide of the Lake. There are alſo two Barks fitted out and Arm'd at Riva, to cruiſe on the Lake; and all the other Avenues of the Trentin are fortified.

Letters from Venice of the 12th Inſtant, adviſe, that that Republick is making great Preparations of War both by Sea and Land, but with what deſign is yet unknown. The Duke of Vendome having ſent great Complaints, that the Governors of the Caſtles belonging to the Venetians on the Lake of Garda, fir'd their Cannon at the Barks in which the French came to make a Deſcent in the Trentin; Anſwer was return'd him, that the French themſelves occaſion'd it, by their refuſal to come under thoſe Caſtles and let their Barks be viſited, according to Cuſtom. The Imperialiſts continue to fortifie Oſtiglia, Revere, and other Poſts of which they are poſſeſs'd, and ſeem determin'd to give a good Account of themſelves.

From the Amſterdam Courant, dated Jan. 27.

Rome, Jan. 6. The Chapter of Naples on the receipt of a Letter from the Pope's Secretary, have, in compliance to his Holineſs, ſet aſide Signior Dauria whom they had elected from among themſelves, and made Signior Patrici their Vicar General. A certain Engliſh Lord ſtopping at an Inn in Fraſcati to Bait, the Innkeeper when he was going away brought in a Reckoning of 50 Scudi, his Lordſhip told him there could not be above 5 due, whereupon a Scuffle happen'd between them, in which one of his Lordſhip's Servants was kill'd, and his Lordſhip was obliged to go off; but in a little time he came back again accompany'd by ſeveral Gentlemen and others, Forreigners, to chaſtiſe the Innkeeper; who being warn'd of their coming, got together the reſt of his Fraternity of the Town with all their Servants, and a briſk Skirmiſh paſs'd between the two Parties, in which ſeveral were wounded on both ſides. The Pope has order'd the Innkeepers to be taken into Cuſtody, but they have abſconded in time.

From the Amſterdam Gazette, dated Jan. 25.

They write from Mantua, that the French Infantry which was quarter'd in the Milaneze, is marching towards the Mincio; and that the D. of Vendome deſigns to attack Oſtiglia, while Monſieur Albergotti makes a Diverſion on the ſide of Final in the Modeneze, to facilitate that Enterprize.

From the Paris Gazette, a la main, dated Jan. 22.

The Advices from Frankfort tell us, that 5000 Men of the Elector of Bavaria's Troops, are marching towards the Frontiers of Bohemia, to make a Diverſion on that ſide.

The King has made 460 Knights of the Order of St. Louis, all of them Officers in his Armies, which with the 40 Sea-Officers created lately, makes the Number of Perſons on whom this Honour has been conferr'd within theſe 3 Weeks, 500.

The Pope has promis'd a Reward of 10000 Crowns to any Diſcoverer of the Perſon that aſſaſſinated his Secretary Zecadoro.

London, Jan. 22. To Day came in the Mail from Holland of Tueſday laſt, with the following News

From the Paris Gazette, dated Jan. 27.

Paris, Jan. 27. A Courier from the Duke of Vendome, who arriv'd here on the 22d at Night, brought Advice, that Lieutenant-General the Count de Vaubecourt has forced the Poſt of Bondanella, at the Mouth of the Parmegiana in the Secchia, where 400 Imperialiſts were retrench'd. This Poſt was attack'd by 1500 Men between 3 and 4 a Clock in the Afternoon. The Count d' Eſtain commanded on the Left, which was the ſtrongeſt ſide, and where the Attack was made by the Chevalier de Luxemburg, with the Count d'Angennes, and the Sieur Tricault a Lieutenant-Collonel. The Sieur de Beaulieu was on the Right, with the Marqueſs de Chaumont, and the Chevalier de Monſis. And the Sieur le Guerchois was in the Center with the Sieur d'Aubarade. The Troops charg'd all at once, with ſo much Bravery, that the Place was carried in half an hour. The Sieur de Barneval, who was on the other ſide of the Parmegiana, did good Service, by firing in the Flank of the Enemy. The Sluyce was taken a little before the Attack began, and a Mill likewiſe which ſtands within Muſquet-ſhot of it. The Lieutenant-Collonel of the Regiment of Bagni, who commanded in this Poſt, went away a quarter of an hour before the Attack, under pretence of going to fetch Succours. He that commanded in his ſtead, was taken, with 40 others, and all the reſt were either kill'd or drown'd, drown'd, except about 25 Men who fled away. Some Officers were wounded; and ſome Souldiers were kill'd, and others wounded.

They write from Metz, that the Marſhal de Villars arriv'd there on the 18th.

From the Harlem Courant, dated Jan 30.

Coblentz, Jan. 23. Yeſterday came a Letter from Major-General Goor, with Advice that the Allies have taken the Town of Traerbach by Storm, in this manner; Major-General Goor, finding that the 8 and 12 Pounders which were planted for Battery, did but little Execution on the Wall, which is very ſtrong; He reſolv'd to Aſſault it with Scaling-Ladders; accordingly a Detachment of 800 Men was drawn out; the Command of which was given to Collonel Ronck; The Attack was made in 5 ſeveral places, and after half an hour's reſiſtance, the Town was taken with Sword in hand; The Enemy having cut off the Paſſage from the Town to the Caſtle, 6 Companies that were in the Town were all either kill'd or made Priſoners. In this Action the loſs of the Allies was very inconſiderable. This Evening Major-General Goor is expected here, of whom we ſhall learn the further particulars. General Auverquerque has commanded ſome Bombs to be thrown into the Caſtle. P. S. Juſt now comes the News, that of the Enemy 124 Solders, 3 or 4 Captains, and 3 Subalterns were taken; all the reſt that were in the Town were kill'd.

From the Amſterdam Courant, dated Jan. 30.

Heilbron, Jan. 23. The Bavarians draw together about Newbourg, which is ſituate on the Danube, but have not begun to attack it. The French are likewiſe drawing together about Strasburg; upon which the Confederates work Night and Day on the Fortifications of Croon Weyſſenburg.

Frankfort, Jan. 24. 'Tis ſaid the Troops of the Circles of Franconia and Swabia, are marching to joyn the Imperialiſts commanded by Count Stirum; in order to move towards the Frontiers of Bavaria: And ſome will have it, that there has been an Action already between the Imperialiſts and the Bavarians, in which the latter were worſted.

Cologne, Jan. 26. Two days ago the Prince of Saxe-Zeyts went from hence to Duſſeldorp, to Aſſiſt in a great Council of War that is to be held there, to which end the Count de Sinzendorf is likewiſe gone thither from Liege; ſeveral Engliſh, Dutch, and Pruſſian Generals are expected there likewiſe. We have a Report that the Imperialiſts and Bavarians have had a Rencounter, in which the former had the Advantage.

Maeſtricht, Jan. 27. This Morning early a Party of our Garriſon with Ammunition and Artillery march'd out, to joyn ſome Troops of the Garriſons of Aix la Chappelle and Liege, and with them to undertake ſomething of Importance.

From the Amſterdam Gazette, dated Jan. 29.

They write from Frankfort of the 24th, that the Imperialiſts will begin to act againſt the Elector of Bavaria on the 25th inſtant. That the Margrave of Anſpach will attack him on the ſide of Franconia; General Herbeville on the ſide of Bohemia; General Schlick from the Lower Auſtria; Count Solari by the Biſhoprick of Saltzbourg; and General Geſchwind from the Country of Tyrol.

The States of the Circle of the Upper Rhine, continue their Conferences, touching the Augmentation and Maintenance of their Forces; and 'tis hop'd they will come to as good Reſolutions as the Circles of Swabia and Franconia have taken before them.

They write from Cologne of the 26th, That a Secretary of the Elector of Bavaria, was ſeiz'd at Caub, in his way to the Elector of Cologn with a Secret Commiſſion from his Brother.

Hague, January 28. Yeſterday the Earl of Winchelſea ſet out from hence for the Court of Hanover. The Earl of Athlone is gone to Gelderland, but is ſhortly expected back again hither. The Letters from England confirm, that the Duke of Marlborough intends to come from England by the end of February, or the beginning of March at fartheſt.

From the Paris Gazette a la main, dated Jan. 26.

They write from Nuremberg, that there has been a very ſharp Action between the Saxons that are in the Emperor's Service, and the Troops of the Elector of Bavaria.

Milford, Jan. 16. Yeſterday arriv'd here the Loo Man of War from Lisbon; as alſo the Spaniſh Merchant from Barbadoes. Her Majeſty's Ships the Dolphin, Seaford and Diſcovery, ſail'd with a great many Ships bound for Holland and London.

Falmouth, Jan. 18. Yeſterday was brought in hither by the Queen Mary a Fluſhing Privateer as Prize, a Hamburg Ship laden with Salt from Rochel. This day came in the Welfare of Lifeland with Wine, Brandy, &c. from Cadiz, taken 7 days ago by Captain Broom Commander of the Southwell Privateer. The Queen Mary and Golden Lyon, two Dutch Privateers, are ſail'd to Cruize.

Plymouth, Jan. 19. Several outward-bound Merchant Ships are arriv'd here, and are ready to ſail to their reſpective Voyages. Taken and brought in here by the Runner of London, the Falcon Man of War, that was taken by the French in the late War.

Dartmouth, Jan. 19. Yeſterday in the Afternoon ſail'd the Katharine of and from London, Charles Deveniſh Commander, bound to Lisbon: At the ſame time paſſed by here ſeveral Merchant Ships to the Weſtward: And this day two Ships of and from this place ſail'd for Lisbon; came in the Land of Promiſe of Topſham, the New York, and Haſtings, from Rotterdam, under Convoy of three Dutch Men of War.

Yarmouth, Jan. 20. There is ſtill in theſe Roads Her Majeſty's Ships the Faulkland, Speedwell, and Deale Caſtle. There is come into our Roads the Milford, with about 30 Sail of Eaſt Country Ships from Gottenburgh; as is alſo the Rumney from the Northward, and the Solebay from the Southward. This day ſailed the Tartar with about 30 Sail. The Faulkland endeavour'd to Sail with ſome large Ships from the Eaſtward, but could not get out of the Harbour.

London, Jan. 22. Sir Tho. Willoughby, Knight of the Shire for Nottingham, died a few days ago.

THE Stock of the late Mr. Thomas Jones Millener on the Royal Exchange, containing all Sorts of Millenary Ware, viz. plain, Figur'd and Silver Ribons, all Sorts of Men and Womens Gloves, Fans, Womens Girdles, Bone-lace, &c. will be ſold by Auction in ſmall Lots, about the 20th of February next. Catalogues (as ſoon as they can be got ready) will be diſtributed by the Widow Jones at her Houſe at the Black Lion in St. Peter's Alley in Cornhil.

†‡† A Doctor in Phyſick, Cures all the Degrees, and Indiſpoſitions, in Venereal Perſons; and by a moſt eaſie, ſafe, and expeditious Method: He likewiſe gives his Advice in all Diſeaſes, and Preſcribes a Cure. Dr. Harborough (a Graduate Phyſician) in Great Knight-Riders-Street, near Doctors-Commons.

ADVERTISEMENT.

FOR God or for Baal: Or no Neutrality in Religion. A Sermon againſt Occaſional Communion, by Mr. Stubs. With a View of the preſent Controverſie about Occaſional Conformity, in Vindication of Mr. Stubs's Sermon from the Unchriſtian Uſage of ſeveral Party-Pamphleteers. Sold by H. Mortlock at the Phœnix in St. Paul's Church-yard, and John Nutt near Stationers-Hall.

LONDON Printed, and Sold by Sam. Buckley at the Dolphin in Little-Britain.